ILP Study Tour 2010

International Learning Program for Special Needs Educators, Psychologists and Allied Health Professionals

England & Paris

24 September – 6 October 2010

- To facilitate international partnerships between Australian Educators, Psychologists and Speech Pathologists with colleagues in England and Paris
- To examine leadership in different school contexts and to explore leadership issues in other countries, especially with leading Heads in England
- To enable participants to widen professional experience through study visits to schools in England
- To provide opportunities to participants to examine models of good practice in a different country and to have these issues explained by leaders in the field
- To study innovative approaches including mentoring, coaching and student-assessment initiatives
- To provide opportunities to engage with thought leaders in UK, as well as world-renowned researchers at OECD and UNESCO
- To examine innovations in each professional area from an international context
