Specialist Schools and Academies Trust 18th National Conference 21st century schooling: excellence for all

24-26 November 2010, ICC Birmingham, England

The SSAT National conference is the UK's largest education conference. 2500 educators, policy makers, influential thinkers and students, from around the world, meet and share practical ideas on the transformation of education.

'The most significant gathering of school leaders in the school calendar' 2009 delegate

At the conference you will enjoy:

- world-class keynote speakers
- international school showcases which share best practice
- presentations led by leading educators, students and academics.

In 2009 keynote speakers included Thomas Friedman (author of The World is Flat) the English Secretary of State for Education, the Ambassador of the People's Republic of China, and the iNet Chair Professor Yong Zhao.

The 18th National Conference

The 18th National Conference will take the theme of 21st century schooling: excellence for all. It will focus on:

- What should students learn?
- How should students learn?
- Removing the barriers to learning.

Study tours of English schools can be offered to international delegates to accompany the conference. These are subject to availability and demand.

'Unparalleled access to current educational thinking' 2009 delegate

What will you gain from attending?

- Engage with new thinking around education.
- Enjoy international networking opportunities.
- Share experiences with educationalists from around the world.
- Get inspiration and practical ideas to take back to school.
